Political Equality

Political equality is the foundation upon which a republic is built.

The right to cast a ballot is the citizen's highest privilege. Up to the present day this has been denied the women citizens of California. Our last wide-awake progressive legislature took note of the fact and declared in favor of a constitutional amendment admitting women to the full privileges of American citizenship. This amendment will be submitted to the franchised citizens of California at the polls on October 10, 1911, and will be favored by all just and thorough voters.

Vote for Amendment 8.
In the meantime there will appear weekly in these columns a heart to heart talk with the citizens of Sonoma county by Mrs. W. A. Finley, the county press chairman of the Political Equality League of Santa Rosa.

That a citizen of a Republic is justly and has always been entitled to the ballot is self evident. Like all self evident propositions it cannot be reasoned; it must dawn; how early the dawn depends wholly upon the receptive state of the mind.

Hence, we shall not attempt to reason with the citizen of a republic who by "the mere accident of birth" holds a ballot in his own hand and withholds the ballot from that other citizens who by the same chance finds herself minus the highest privilege of her citizenship.

Neither are we going to say disrespectful things to him or about him because it all came about before he, of the present generation, was born, and before the idea of a republic came into the world.

We hope to show that he is not to blame and never was to blame and how it all came about that the political pie was all put in his dinner pail.

There will be some pen pictures of the franchised citizen who thinks the other citizens does not need any of that pie; of the citizen who thinks it would be positively harmful to the other citizens; and of the citizen who thinks not at all. Of the generous, progressive citizen and the citizen "established" we shall all speak.

Then we will tell of what will become of the baby. Of how the late franchised may go to war if we have one; and what will happen to the women juror serving with eleven of her prosecutors.

We will also tell how she has already held office by the will of the franchised and nothing more serious came of it than the defeat of the opposing candidate who had the superior privilege of voting for himself. Somebody has declared that many a woman could go to congress with a baby under each arm and a bottle of soothing syrup in each hand and give better service than many a man already there by the will of the people and the accident of birth.

But these columns will contain no boasts; "the proof of the pudding is in the eating." The writer has never believed that the average woman is better and wiser than the average man, but she does believe that two heads are better than one when so situated as to view objects of common interests from different standpoints.

However, it is not a question of how wisely she will use the ballot or whether she is taking upon herself unnecessary burdens, but whether having reached her maturity she shall be denied her legitimate part in the affairs of the world about her.

But this column will not be devoted alone to the cause of women; an appeal for a complete republic is of equal importance. Do you believe that a republic is the best form of government? Whatever your theories may be you have never yet seen the experiment tried because a republic is but a republic in name with one half of its citizens denied representation. It has not even reached the experimental state and only by actual results can we judge whether or not a republic is to be the ideal form for the government of the future. If the full grown republic does not fulfill its promise then the limited republic represented not by sex but by the best elements of its body would perhaps be the safer readjustment.

Read this column, it will not all be somber.

MRS. W. A. FINLEY.

Increase of Over $2,226,000

County Assessor Frank E. Dowd has completed the compilation of the assessment of property in the county of Sonoma for the year 1911.

The Assessor's figures show a gross gain over last year's assessment of $2,226,000. Of this sum $1,025,000 is operative property and is only subject for the Panama-Pacific Exposition tax and county and school bond taxes.

By "operative property" is meant the property of public service corporations and banks which is exempt under Constitutional Amendment No. 1, from paying city and county taxes, paying a direct tax to the state. The county also loses the railroad assessment which last year was $2,909,615.

This is the first year under the new taxation and revenue law—it having gone into effect just prior to the 1911 assessment.

The total assessment of property in this county last year, including railroad assessments by the State Board of Equalization was $36,822,783. This year the total loss by reason of the new law will be $3,931,859.

Reducing this from last year's assessment would leave a balance of $32,890,925, while the assessment of this year exclusive of the loss of operative property tax above referred to is $35,023,680, which is considered a very flattering showing.

The totaled assessed valuation of property in Sonoma county is $36,053,925, and deducting the operative property leaves $35,023,680.

Description of Property

The assessment is divided as follows:

Real Estate other than city and town lots, $16,250,175; improvements of same, $5,066,000.

City and town lots, $4,332,250; improvements of same, $5,066,000.

Value of improvements on real estate, assessed to persons other than owners of real estate, $154,945.

Total value of real estate and improvement, $30,663,095.

Personal property, $54,304,485; money, $36,600; solvent credits $24,400.

Sonoma—real estate, $168,860; improvements, $232,585; personal property, $75,675; money, $1,200; solvent credits, $800; total, $460,220.

Santa Rosa being the largest city in Sonoma county felt the withdrawal of the operative property more than any other city. The decrease from last year's assessment of 260,894 is less than the assessment of one large public service corporation taxed in the city.

Healdsburg assessments shows a loss of $31,095; Cloverdale, a loss of $15,915; Sebastopol, a loss of $3,260; Sonoma gains in assessment, $16,605; Petaluma gains, $73,570.

Opens School July 31st
From the Petaluma Argus we clip the following:

W. O. Hocker, who for several months has been filling a position on the Courier, will resign on Saturday evening and in a few days will leave for Glen Ellen as he has been appointed principal of that school for the ensuing term.

The school directors decided to open the school on the 31st inst. instead of the 7th of August.

Mr. Hocker has made numerous friends in this city during his stay and his going away is regretted although he is wished success in his new field.

Show an Increase
The assessment of the road districts in Sonoma county has been completed and shows for the year of 1911 a material increase over that of last year. The assessment in the First Supervisorial District is as follows:

Glen Ellen $460,665; Agua Caliente $786,560; San Luis $1,132,960; Pennings $1,402,745; Lakeville $1,074,470.

The gain in each of the above districts is: Agua Caliente $30,090; San Luis $32,775; Pennings $54,080; Lakeville, $9,690.

The motion to introduce new evidence in the suit of Albers vs. Einhorn et al., was submitted.

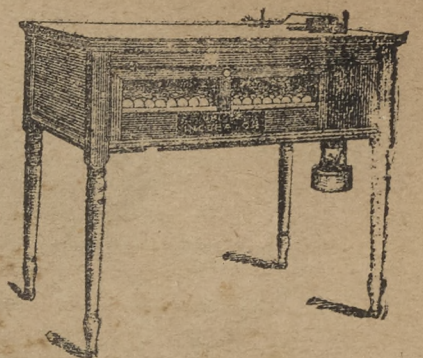

You Can't Stop 'em
There is no use for us slow-witted men to try to keep women from doing what they have made up their mind to do. Los Angeles, it seems, has an ordinance prohibiting speech-making in the city parks, this seems a proper enough ordinance and applies, of course, to men and women alike. However, "the wage-earning woman's suffrage league" asked permission to hold a "doughnut campaign" in one of the parks, which, of course, was refused, if there was to be any speaking, but they circumvented the ordinance by singing their pleas for equal suffrage as they dealt out doughnuts and tea. Now with this display of resourcefulness is there any use trying to keep the women from the polls?—Salinas Index.

Site Chosen

The Panama-Pacific Exposition will be located at Harbor View and in Golden Gate Park.

The compromise verdict was reached at 12:45 o'clock Tuesday in a manner that is certain to be satisfactory to the entire city and state.

The compromise not only includes Harbor View and the Park sites for the main buildings of the great exhibition, but also includes a magnificent plan of boulevards and monuments to take in the whole city.

The accepted plans provide for a great boulevard to start at Telegraph hill, where monuments and building-will be located, and will proceed to Harbor View, where world exhibits will be located. From Harbor View the boulevard will run to the Presidio and Lincoln Park, where the great observatory and Panama Canal monument will be located.

Through Lincoln Park the great fair highway extends through thirty-third and Fortieth avenues to Golden Gate Park, where the best of the permanent buildings are to be located.

The Park buildings will include a magnificent art gallery and aquarium.

Land End and the Cliff House are included in the plans.

The boulevard also extends down to the center of town, where a civic center, probably at Van Ness and Market, will be located.

School Fund Apportionment

Miss Florence M. Barnes, county superintendent of schools, has completed the apportionment of the sum of $38,785.50, state school funds, and has allotted the several amounts to the school districts of this valley as mentioned below. The basis of apportionment is $5.50 for each child in average attendance. This is the final apportionment of state school funds under the old law providing for apportionment based on the school census. In the future the apportionment will be upon the average daily attendance of pupils:

Sonoma, $812.50; Huichua, $58.
50; San Luis, $208; El Verano, $556.50; Flowery, $130; Glen Ellen, $492.50; Dunbar, $85.50; Enterprise, $7.50; Wainnough, $84.50; Trinit, $50.70.

Deaf Mutes are Being Investigated

Three men giving the names of B.
R. Vickers, James Boyle and Frank Berry, and claiming to be deaf mutes, are locked up in the county jail pending an establishment of their identity.
The men were taken into custody at Glen Ellen where they were traveling about without apparent means of support, carrying pads of paper which were presented to those approached, with this message:

"I present this as an explanation of my condition, having met with an accident caused by a gasoline explosion. This subjects me to epileptic fits and I have lost the use of my left arm."

The authorities have had the men photographed and an effort is being made to learn if the men are ex-convicts in this state.

Mrs. Peter Kiser

Again death has visited our midst and one more highly respected mother and citizen of years standing has been taken into the folds of her maker.

Mrs. Peter Kiser left this world at the age of 71 years on last Saturday morning at 3 a. m., leaving five children, Conrad, Albert, Nicholas, Mrs. Agnes Miller and Mrs. Tillie Jacob, besides a host of friends, and other relatives to mourn their loss.

Mrs. Kiser came to this valley from Switzerland with her husband and five children 33 years ago and located in Sonoma Valley, where the y reared their children and endeared themselves to everyone.
Mr. Kiser died some 4 years ago.
The funeral services were held from the Catholic church on Monday and the remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

The attendance at the funeral was very large, and showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Native Sons Visit Santa Rosa

On Sunday last, July 23rd., members of the local parlor of the Native Sons visited the members of the Santa Rosa parlor in Ralph Thompson's big car.

The members who took the trip were H. B. Shaw, president; Wm.
Von Hacht, 1st vice president; Jas.
Maffei, 3rd vice president; John Picetti, trustee; and Donald Campbell.
The brothers were well received by their brother members and after the meeting traveled toward Forestville and Guerneville, where they enjoyed the most beautiful scenery.

While there the boys visited Mr.
Jesse Prestwood, our local teacher, who is looking fine, and then journeyed toward Healdsburg then homeward toward Santa Rosa, where they stopped for a good supper, but one of the boys had a hard time getting what he wanted to eat, and at last tackled a club steak.

Paid Bill and Expenses

Two men were arrested during this week in other cities on information furnished by Jack Smith, on warrants issued from the justice court of Glen Ellen township. One of these men was William Day, and he was captured at Chico. The other was Thoma Pratten, captured at Modesta. Both are charged with having defrauded an innkeeper, and the warrants were obtained by Mrs.
Monahan of Glen Ellen. Each of the men were liberated on bail of one hundred dollars subsequent to their arrest, and they arranged to pay the amount of their board bill and costs. The charges against them were dismissed.

Chisholm's Victim Known

Van B. Drouillard was the man murdered by L. C. Chisholm in the tent at Fort Bragg.

With the closing of the grim portals of Folsom prison upon the murderer Tuesday came the sweeping aside of the mystery that had hitherto veiled the identity of his victim.

"It was not 'John D. Powell' nor 'Jack Wilson,' as the lying lips of the murderer had proclaimed. It was not some poor unfortunate, groveling along in the flotsam and jetsam of life, by whose life he was to profit by the payment of an insurance policy, after the bullets had done their work.

No! A deep stain for the stained soul of the murderer. It was a friend, a friend of years ago in the old home in the state of Tennessee.
Chisholm slew Van B. Drouillard, him who had been his friend.

The positive identity of the murdered man has been established and the prosecution confirmed the fact Tuesday.

Chisholm and Drouillard had known each other years ago in Tennessee. They came to California the same time, some ten years ago.
As time passed on they accidentally met in San Francisco and renewed the friendship of years ago. Both secured employment as solicitors for the San Francisco Bulletin, and together they visited a number of towns in the state while soliciting.

The fact that Chisholm and Drouil-liard had been friends perhaps explained the reason why six weeks elapsed between the arrival of the murderer and his intended victim in the neighborhood where the slaying took place and the carrying out of the plot to kill. Possibly there comes to even such cold-blooded murders as this moment when the still small voice of conscience speaks and checks. Such a possibility is hard to believe, however, in Chisholm's case.

The story of the manner in which the identity of Chisholm's victim was learned cannot be fully told here.
Chisholm in an unguarded moment may have told some one. Maybe some one else told. But the identity of the dead man was positively confirmed Monday.

Drouillard is said to have once lived in Denver and is believed to have a wife and child there.

By a singular coincidence a juror by the name of J. W. Drouillard was called for the Chisholm trial and took his stand in the jury box to be examined as to his qualifications to act as a juror. He had positive ideas and was excused by Chisholm's attorney by peremptory challenge.
No wonder Chisholm balked at accepting a man who bore the same name as his victim.

Chisholm was taken to Folsom prison Tuesday morning by Deputy Sheriffs Donald McIntosh and Charles Meyer.—Press Democrat.

A Negro Department

Booker T. Washington, Bishop C. H. Phillips, Bishop H. M. Turner and other prominent Negroes, have applied to the directors of the Panama Pacific International Exposition Company to install a Negro Department at the 1915 Exposition. They request that the department be officered and conducted by Negroes under the direct supervision of the Exposition officials. They also call attention to the fact that the Negro Department at the Atlantic and Jamestown Exposition, though local in their scope, proved a popular drawing card. It is suggested by them that the department be made International in its scope.

Is Now Insane

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Sonoma. People of the State of California, plaintiff, vs. Fred Sch-warze, defendant.

"We the jury find the defendant, Fred Schwarze, insane.

Date July 25, 1911.

G. A. Feldmeyer, Foreman."

The above verdict was quickly returned into Judge Seawell's court shortly after noon Tuesday by the jury impelled to inquire whether Fred Schwarze, who shot and killed his two sisters in their home in Healdsburg, on March 10th last, is sane or insane at the present time.

Evidence was adduced, lay and expert, to show that the defendant is insane, and there was nothing left for the jurors to do but to return just such a finding. No evidence was called to prove to the contrary, except that the witnesses were cross-examined by the prosecutor, it having been agreed that medical experts named by the defense, State and Court, should examine and report, and evidence be given at the trial.
Dr. A. E. Osborne, the expert named by the Court, testified unhesitatingly, that the man is insane, in such a mental condition that in committing crime, including murder, believes that he is doing a valuable service.

The finding of the jury, however, did not set the accused free. He was ordered confined in the asylum at Ukiah, and in the event of his recovery can be brought back to Santa Rosa for trial. The law provides for this as it did for the special proceedings had in Judge Seawell's court Tuesday.

District Attorney Clarence F.
Lea appeared for the prosecution and Attorney J. T. Coffman for the accused.

An interesting feature at the coming Gravenstein apple fair at Sebastopol two weeks hence will be a display of Gravenstein apples gathered from trees one hundred years old. They come from the old apple orchard at Fort Ross that was planted by the Russians when they landed at Fort Ross and built their chapel and other buildings. The old trees bear fine fruit and there has been an absence of blight and pests—Court r.

Last Saturday the ditching machine to be used in digging the ditches for the sewer system arrived in this city and was assembled for use. On Monday while making a short cut to Broadway from Quartoli Wine Cellars the heavy structure broke through the bridge on First Street East between the postoffice and the Methodist church. No serious damage was done other than a delay of several hours and a few broken boards. The machine is now on lower Broadway in operation and is certainly a wonder as a ditch digger.

It now appears that the murdered woman whose body was found on Mt. Tompaia, was a victim of L. C. Chisholm. A positive identification was made by Mrs. Nita Knoll, of Sacramento, by cloth cut from her clothing. Minnie Paris is the name of the murdered woman and she disappeared soon after she and Chisholm went to San Francisco to be married. Miss Paasi had about $200 in cash at the time, and it is thought to be the motive of the murder.

Cadets Come Home

On the 13th of the month about 19 members of the Cadets left Sonoma to go into camp.

The boys first day's march took them within two miles of Santa Rosa and the next day they made Guerneville, where they made camp in the famous Armstrong Grove. Here the cadets maintained strict military discipline, doing drill and guard mount and target practice.

Tuesday of this week camp was broken up and the march for home was begun. On the return march the boys struck camp between Santa Rosa and Sebastopol Wednesday evening, stopping at the Dunbar school, and arriving in Sonoma about 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

After a short drill in the plaza the boys marched to the Congregational church, from there all departed to their homes. The boys report a glorious time, and are already planning to march to Ukiah next year.

The outing was planned and was under the supervision of Rev. A. B. Roberts, of the Congregational church.

Messrs Dresel and Prestwood were among the local visitors at the camp of the Cadets at Guerneville.

Ralph Buchan received the promotion of bugler of the Cadets while at camp.
